Funeral Services
Held Sunday For
Mrs. Tena Melton

1953

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Tena Melton, 82, Cedar Rapids resident, on Sunday, Nov. 15, at 2:00 p.m. in the Methodist church in Mechanicsville, Iowa.

Rev. M. C. Melcher, pastor of the church, officiated. Mrs. Glen Strother and Mrs. John Davis Jr., sang, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. C. W. Norris.

Pallbearers were Lowell Kohl, DeWitt Kohl, Herbert Kohl, Amos Kohl, Eugene Kohl, and Eldon Kohl.

Burial was in Rose Hill cemetery, Mechanicsville.

OBITUARY

Tena E. Melton, daughter of Amos and Maria Kohl was born in Jones county, July 21, 1871. She was the last of a family of nine children, there being four sisters and four brothers preceding her in death.

She grew to womanhood in the White Oak community and united with the Evangelical church there.

She was united in marriage to George J. Melton on April 27, 1890. They began housekeeping on the Amos Kohl farm in the same community, later moving to a farm east of Mechanicsville. To this union two daughters were born, Alma Simpson who preceded her in death on November 1, 1924 and Mildred Nightingale of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

In 1914 they retired from the farm, and moved to Mechanicsville where she attended the Methodist church.

Mrs. Melton was a great lover of flowers, and spent her spare time in her garden. She was a devoted wife and mother.

Her husband preceded her in death on March 9, 1945. She leaves to mourn her departure, a daughter Mildred Nightingale and a grand daughter Mildred Oldorf, and three great grand children, Glenn, Larry and Edith Oldorf. Also several pieces and nephews and a host of friends.

Funeral Service For George J. Melton

George J. Melton life long resident of this community passed away after a brief illness. Son of Robert and Nancy Zimmerman Melton was born in Jones County, Ia., April 12, 1867 and passed away March 9th at 1 o'clock Friday morning, at the age of almost 78 years, in St. Luke's Methodist hospital in Cedar Rapids.

He was united in marriage to Tena Kohl April 27, 1890 in Jones County. They quietly celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary nearly five years ago. Two daughters came to bless this union: Alma and Mildred. Alma preceded him death in 1924.

Mr. Melton spent his entire life following the occupation of farming in Jones and Cedar Counties. He was actively engaged in farming east of Mechanicsville until 1914 when the family moved to Mechanicsville where they have resided since.

He is survived by his life's companion, one daughter Mrs. Mildred Nightingale of Cedar Rapids, one granddaughter Mrs. Mildred Oldorf of Alburnett and three great grandchildren; one brother Ora Melton of Cedar Rapids and one sister Mrs. Vesta Hines of Mechanicsville.

Mr. Melton was a good neighbor, always ready to lend a helping hand. He aided a great deal in the building of this church, following the destruction of the previous one by fire.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church in Mechanicsville, Sunday, March 11, 1945 at 2:30. Clergymen who officiated at the services were Rev. George A. Stauffacker of Cedar Rapids and Rev. Bernard Kemper. Burial was in Rose Hill Cemetery at Mechanicsville.

Mrs. J. Paul Thomas, Mrs. Mildred More, Melvin Rowser and H. J. Maurer sang accompanied by Mrs. C. W. Norris.

Pallbearers were H. E. Gibeaut, Bert Eagerty, Rush Clippenger, Lloyd Andre, J. A. Kohl and Joe Cruse.

Out of town people who attended the funeral were, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Kohl, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt, Kohl of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Oldorf of Alburnett, Iowa, Glen Nightengale of Central City, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kohl of Iowa City, Eldon Kohl of Lisbon, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Peet of Mt. Vernon, Miss Stella Zimmerman of Iowa City, Will Bailey of Anamosa, Mrs. Minnie Fink, Nelson Fink, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hines, Otto Kohl, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur

Burroughs

Death Of Mrs. Robert Melton.

Mrs. Robert Melton died at the Duane Zimmerman home last Thursday evening about seven o'clock, her death being rather unexpected although she had not enjoyed good health for some months. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at the Zimmerman home, Rev. W. T. McCandless, of the Presbyterian church, conducting the services. Interment was made at the local cemetery.

Mrs. Melton was the third child of Duane and Susan Zimmerman and was born in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, January 28, 1844. Her marriage to Robert Melton occurred August 16, 1863, and to them five children were born, one, a son, having preceded her in death in December 1899. The remaining children are George, Roy and Ora, and Mrs. Len Hines of this place; ten grand and three great grand children, her father, Duane Zimmerman, two brothers and four sisters also survive.

Mrs. Melton lived a life of unremitting toil and sacrifice for the benefit of those near and dear to her. She was a regular and consistent student of her bible and reading that sacred book brought her great consolation and fortitude.

J. D. Peets observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Peet were guests of honor Sunday at a family dinner given for them at the Palisades lodge in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Hudachek and Mrs. Clarence Felsman were hosts. Additional guests were the J. D. Peets' grandson, J. N. Peet, his wife and two children of Iowa City and Mrs. J. D. Peet's brother, G. F. May, and Mrs. May of Anamosa. Since Mr. Felsman could not attend the dinner the group visited him in the hospital at Cedar Rapids that afternoon.

Miss Stella Maud May, whose home was east of Anamosa, and J. D. Peet of near Martelle were married Aug. 20, 1901, in the Congregational parsonage at Anamosa. Mrs. Peet had been a teacher in the Jones county schools prior to her marriage and Mr. Peet was engaged in farming.

The couple farmed the parental A. L. Peet farm north of Martelle for seven years and then purchased a farm near Forest Chapel, on which they lived the next twelve years. Although Mr. Peet is now retired he still works and supervises daily on the two farms, now rented out.

The Peet family then moved to Mt. Vernon in order that their children might attend Cornell and have the privileges afforded by a college community. They bought the former Dr. Hill property on north Seventh Avenue, which is still their home.

There are five children in the family: Hallie (Mrs. A. E. Kleger) of Long View, Wash.; N. J. Peet of Iowa City; Hattie (Mrs. Clarence Felsman) of Mt. Vernon; Huldah of Dallas, Texas, and Helen (Mrs. Lafe Hudachek) of near Mechanicsville. There are three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also in the family.

To the Peets the community extends its congratulations, in addition to the cards, gifts and flowers sent by relatives and close friends.

Rites for J. D. Peet Held Wednesday

Funeral services for J. D. Peet were held at the Morgan Funeral Home in Mt. Vernon at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 15. Burial was in the Wilcox cemetery near Viola, Iowa. The Rev. R. G. Oswald was the officiating minister.

Pallbearers were James Peet of Fairview, Robert Peet of Martelle, Clarence Felsman of Mt. Vernon, Lafe Hudachek of Mechanicsville, Adolf E. Kleger of Longview, Wash., and Albert Petermann of LaGrange, Ill.

Mr. Peet passed away at St. Luke's hospital in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Sunday evening, Nov. 12, 1961.

Julius Duane Peet, elder son of Albert Leroy and Ella Zimmerman Peet, was born Dec. 22, 1876, on a farm in Jones County. After finishing country school he attended the Cedar Rapids Business College, after which he farmed with his father until 1901, when he started farming for himself on what is now the Arnold Lerch farm. On Aug. 20, 1901, he was united in marriage to Stella Maud May.

After farming near Martelle for 7 years, they bought a farm in the Forest Chapel community, where they farmed for 12 years. On Feb. 20, 1920, they moved to their present home in Mt. Vernon. After coming here Mr. Peet was a salesman for the L. M. Peet Manufacturing Co. of Council Bluffs.

Mr. Peet was affiliated with the Oddfellows lodge and was a former member of the Masonic Order.

Surviving are his wife; a son N. J. Peet of Iowa City; four daughters, Mrs. A. E. Kleger (Hallie) of Longview, Wash., Mrs. C. E. Felsman (Hattie) of Mt. Vernon, Mrs. A. E. Petermann (Huldah) of LaGrange, Ill., and Mrs. Lafe Hudachek (Helen) of Mechanicsville; a granddaughter Mrs. E. H. Smith of Iowa City; two grandsons J. N. Peet of Salem, Ore., and John P. Kleger of Longview, Wash., five great grandchildren, Nicki, Steven and Carolyn Peet of Salem, Ore., Dean Smith of Iowa City and Kimberli Anne Kleger of Longview, Wash.
